stroyed Four Batteries Sunk
With Small Damage to Attacks.

Associated Press
LONDON, Mar. 8.—The official press bureau tonight announced that the Russian fleet recently bombarded Zenguldaik, Kazan and Kili, which are Black Sea ports, destroying all the structures and the plants for export of coal.

A terrific explosion and fire followed the bombardment says the statement, and four batteries were silenced before the destruction of eight steamers. The Russian casualties were three wounded in the engagement.

WILL HOLD CREWS

NEW YORK, Mar. 8.—The American steamship company has decided to postpone its departure to Europe until April 15, in order to give the crews time to get acquainted with their duties and that it is not necessary to have a chief officer on board.

The company's president said that the American crew will be given a week's vacation after the voyage.

TWO CRUISERS DAMAGED

EDINBURGH, Mar. 8.—An explosion took place in the magazine of one of the British cruisers at 10:30 p.m. last night, causing damage to the British cruiser "Caledonia" and the French cruiser "Dupleix" and slightly damaging the British cruiser "Crown Prince." The British cruiser "Caledonia" was damaged in the magazine of one of the British cruisers.

GERMANS ARE CHECKED

LONDON, Mar. 8.—A press bulletin from Berlin reported yesterday that it is extremely difficult to find German officers in the British Army and that the Germans have lost the initiative. The Russians are retaking the enemy in the Caucasus and are continuing their offensives in the region of Anatolia.

The British also reported that the Germans suffered many losses in the Caucasus and declared that the British Major General Sir Edward H. Haig had joined the Anglo-German
